to sow is to reap.

What we say or do here returns to us a thousandfold. Like a symphony expressed on echo-peak-mountain, the melody returns mimed as a thousand blessings from echo mountain to sender, giver. It appears that echo mountain, is symbolic of every-man's and every woman's life. What we say or do here returns to us thousandfold. If one sings, the person will be surrounded by a thousand compositions. If she wounds others the spiteful injury returns to her - ditto - multiplied a thousandfold in kind. When she lies & steals a thousand like kind lies and thefts she will undergo. If she mistreats the world with anger, hate, spiteful-betrayal and violence, the same hate, anger, spite & betrayal violently returns to sender as a greatly magnified rejoinder one-thousand-fold. The old dictum is true that when a person sows seeds of thorns, she alone reaps those as an entire harvest of thorns. In the same way, to share our blessings of love, honesty, integrity and bliss with others blessing in kind always returns to giver a thousandfold. Life is really a worldwide echo mountain; everything one does here always returns to the sender, abundantly. May clean conscience be your lifetime blessing & escort.
